1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of the record fails to disclose the steps of executing the origination process to determine if the caller number as authorized;

if the caller number is authorized, then executing the origination process to determine if the called number is legitimate;

if the called number is legitimate, then executing the origination process to select a second gateway based on the called number; in response to selecting the second gateway, creating a termination process for the call;

executing the termination process to verify that the second gateway can handle the call;

if the second gateway can handle the call, then executing the termination process to select an identifier for routing the call from the first gateway to the second gateway; and transferring a control message to the first gateway indicating the selected identifier, wherein the first gateway receives the user communications for the call and adds the identifier to user communications for the call, and wherein a packet system routes the user communications from the first gateway to the second gateway based on the identifier in combination of other limitations recited in claims 1 and 11.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
